PRESENTED BY

2019 Honoree

Larry Richman

Chair, U.S. Region
CIBC

Larry D. Richman is Chair, U.S. Region, CIBC Bank USA. Richman is focused on developing client relationships, fostering community engagement and mentoring team members.

Richman previously served as Senior Executive Vice President, Group Head, CIBC U.S. Region, and President and Chief Executive Officer, CIBC Bank USA. He joined CIBC following its June 2017 acquisition of The PrivateBank, where he served as President and CEO. He joined The PrivateBank in November 2007 to drive its strategic transformation into a leading middle market commercial bank, growing from $4 billion in assets in 2007 to over $20 billion in 2017.

He has over 30 years in banking and spent the majority of his career with LaSalle Bank in Chicago, where he rose to President and Chief Executive Officer of LaSalle Bank N.A., and President of LaSalle Bank Midwest. He began his career at American National Bank and joined Exchange National Bank of Chicago in 1981 until its acquisition by LaSalle.

He is on the Dean's Advisory Council at Indiana University's Kelley School of Business, where he earned his MBA. He was inducted into the Academy of Alumni Fellows for the Kelley School of Business in 2006. He is a past Trustee of Bradley University in Peoria, Illinois, where he earned his bachelor's degree. Richman was inducted into Bradley's Centurion Society for distinguished alumni in 2017. He also holds an advanced certificate from Stanford University in credit and financial management and is a Lifetime Advisory Board member at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management.

Richman is very active in many civic, philanthropic and governance activities. He serves on the boards of Northwestern Memorial Hospital, Big Shoulders Fund, Chicago Urban League, Museum of Science and Industry, Western Golf Association and the Executives' Club of Chicago. He is a member of the Financial Services Roundtable, the Commercial Club of Chicago and its Civic Committee, the Bankers Club of Chicago, and is a member of the Economic Club of Chicago and a past member of its Board of Directors. In 2012, he was appointed to the Board of World Business Chicago, which was created by Mayor Rahm Emanuel to promote the benefits of doing business in the Chicago area to business peers worldwide.

Richman has received a number of civic and charitable awards. Among them, he received the American Diabetes Association's Father of the Year Award, the Humanitarian Award from the Illinois Holocaust Museum & Education Center and the Spirit of Erikson Institute Award. He also received the Civic Achievement Award from the American Jewish Committee.

He and his wife, Corky, have four grown children and eight grandchildren.

Make no little plans; they have no magic to stir men's blood and probably themselves will not be realized. Make big plans; aim high in hope and work, remembering that a noble, logical diagram once recorded will never die, but long after we are gone be a living thing, asserting itself with ever-growing insistency. Remember that our sons and our grandsons are going to do things that would stagger us. Let your watchword be order and your beacon beauty.

About the Daniel H. Burnham Award for Distinguished Leadership

The Daniel H. Burnham Award was created by the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce’s Board of Directors to pay tribute to a prominent business leader, not only for their influence in advancing the Chicagoland business climate, but also for their tremendous civic contributions helping to make this city a better place to both work and live. This year marks the 28th anniversary of the Burnham Award and shines a light on the importance of civic involvement and is a reminder of how Chicago thrives with a fully engaged business community.

About the Burnham Award Dinner

More than 600 of Chicago’s top business leaders gather together at the annual Burnham Award dinner to celebrate Chicago’s legacy of always dreaming big and honoring a business leader who makes “no little plans.” Attendees enjoy a gourmet dinner, wine, cocktails, and silent auction in support of the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce. A portion of the dinner proceeds benefits the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce’s Foundation which focuses on workforce development initiatives.

About the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce

The Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce combines the power of people, with our legacy of leadership and business advocacy, to drive a dynamic economy. We focus on delivering value for our members, making Chicagoland a world-class place to live and work.

The Chamber is a community of business and civic leaders working on behalf of Chicagoland businesses. Members represent a diverse cross-section of our economy, including small and emerging businesses, mid-market companies, large corporations, and multi-nationals.

The Chamber Board and Executive Committee include senior executives from Fortune 500 companies, small businesses, multi-nationals, top global consultancies, major banks, and media networks.

With more than 100 events each year, the Chamber is the most dynamic business association in Chicagoland. Educational programs offer crucial business updates on topics including technology, marketing, and international commerce. Prestigious business networking events help businesses make connections that count.

As the largest independent voice for the region's business community, the Chamber advocates at every level of government and acts on legislation and policy that can impact your ability to run your business profitably.
